Description

Pierre FOREST was born in 1881 in Nice. He died in 1971 in Paris. He exhibited at the Salon des Inépendants in Paris from 1931 to 1943, where he was a member. He painted views of Nice and landscapes of the Île-de-France region. It is with beautiful touches of light that the painter depicts this riverside where a few boats are waiting. With his brushstrokes and strong contrasts, he makes the water's surface vibrate and brings this peaceful landscape to life. The painter is listed in the "Bénézit" as well as in the dictionary of "Petits Maîtres de la peinture" by Gérald Shurr and Pierre Cabanne. The painting is enhanced by a gilded carved wooden frame. The dimensions with the frame are 30 cm x 26.5 cm. Packaging, shipping, and insurance costs via tracked Colissimo are EUR25 for France and
