The straight facade with 'plans-coupés' opens to a door, with a single panel highlighted with gilded moldings. The plan-coupés form an open angle followed by the gray marble "Saint Anne". They are decorated with rushes and moldings in gilded brass. The piece of furniture rests on two front feet 'top', enhanced with small sabots; and a right 'corner' foot. Interior, stained in red 'oxblood', arranged with three shelves. The bottoms are original with a 'dovetail' assembly. Beautiful 18th century piece of furniture, in flamed Cuban mahogany, in very good original condition.
