Description

This charming and fine oil on wood framed and lined by the framer A. Gimet, at the beginning of the 19th century 76 grand'rue in Sèvres (Hauts-de-Seine) is a Work signed on the back by Marie Grégoire with the inventory number on the label 481. Presented in a charming beaded ribbon frame in natural wood with fine sculpture and gilded highlights. The rider in the alley of a park with a high wall in the foliage of large trees flooded with light with trunks bleached in the setting sun by a sky, with light clouds in the light of the end of the day. This pretty little work is painted with delicacy and our eye likes to wander there. A beautiful painting treated in miniature full of spirit, where the dream remains allowed as it emanates great. Everything is noted on the back of the decorative painting, a curiosity in good
