

Haarlem 1724, Small Teapot, Solid Silver, Casperius Jansonius, "trekpotje"

1 350 EUR

Signature : Casperius Jansonius

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 18 cm

Diameter : 10 cm

Height : 13 cm

Description

Very rare small infusion teapot or "trekpotje" as the Dutch call it. Intended to make a very strong tea which could cool and which was diluted with boiling water or hot milk. On the bottom are the four guarantee hallmarks for the first title (lion rampant), the hallmark of the city of Haarlem, the hallmark of the master goldsmith Casperius Jansonius (CP) and the date letter X for the vintage 1724.220 Grams

Dealer

Ian Panné

Antique silverware and general antiques

Tel : +32 475443619

Essene-kerkplein 5b

Affligem 1790