Description

Elegant and timeless freestanding modular teak bookcase/display cabinet from the late 1960s. Italian style similar to the work of "Louis Paolozzi". Model with three bays and 8 boxes: 3 closed boxes (with 4 shelves), 2 glass boxes, and 3 open boxes. Partly modular and interchangeable elements, screwed and combined using black lacquered brackets (screws provided). T-shaped handles in lacquered brass. Black tubular legs and adjustable in height. The bookcase can be used as a middle unit/central divider. Teak veneer. Very slight traces mainly on the left side, traces of wear in the cupboards and small chips at the join of the windows (discreet). Very good condition.
