

Antique Tobacco Pipe (laos, 18th Or 19th Century) Horn And Silver 11 Cm 68 Gr

400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Horn

Description

Origin: LaosPeriod: 18th or 19th centuryDimensions: Length 11 cm weight 68 grMaterials: Finely carved horn and silverCondition: Very good condition, natural patina of the horn, no visible restoration.a micro chipDescription:Superb Laotian tobacco pipe, composed of a carved horn body decorated with stylized plant motifs, evoking the traditional symbols of Buddhist and animist iconography of Laos. The conical end is in chased silver, decorated with beaded rings and twisted threads.The fineness of the work on the horn suggests a high-quality handcrafted piece, probably intended for a notable or for ceremonial use.Remarks:Rare collector's item, highly sought after by lovers of tribal art, ethnography or Asian curiosities.A fine example of traditional Laotian

Dealer

Biarritz Antiques

Antiquaire Généraliste

Mobile : 06.88.06.33.44

adresse postale 7 avenue Mac Croskey et 284 rue des croisades 34280 La Grande Motte Biarritz 64200

know-how in the 19th century.