Description

Pretty display cabinet - bookcase from an old insurance office. Dating from the 50s, in oak veneered wood, it is in 2 separate parts, they can be placed glued or on either side (see photo). The top has numerous height-adjustable shelves, closing with sliding doors in frosted glass engraved with diamond shapes. (the glasses are original, some small chips not too visible), the piece of furniture can also be used without the doors. The bottom closes with doors, one side has drawers, the other shelves. The upper part is simply placed on the lower part. Its dimensions in cm: length 232. (2 x 116) depth 46. (36 in the upper part) height 236 (80 + 156) This article is also visible in my store in Belz, in Morbihan in southern Brittany where you can, if you wish, collect it.
