Description

Rare and impressive bronze from Vienna with its original polychromy. Representation in motion of a man in traditional clothing on a rocky base who appears to be a North African warrior brandishing his staff. Beautiful chiseling, particularly of the drapery and beautiful patina. The size of the bronze gives all its scope to this unique piece. Visible losses to the painting on both sides in no way affect the aesthetics of the sculpture. Signature on the reverse. Very good general condition. From the 1900s. Dimensions: H: 28 cm W: 21 cm D: 15 cm Famous Viennese artist of cold-painted bronzes. Known for his great attention to detail and the use of vibrant colors.
