The Verrerie d'Art LORRAIN, or Verrerie Belle Etoile Daum et Cie, was created on December 15, 1925 by Antonin DAUM in Croismare, near Lunéville, in order to differentiate its production from that of the Daum factory located in Nancy. Pierre d'Avesn became artistic director from 1930. From 1927, it was mechanized to produce pieces in blown-pressed and molded-pressed glass, signed LORRAIN. The economic crisis of the 1930s affected the
