

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Kangxi Chinese Porcelain Blue And White Plate 17th Century Qing Dynasty Fishermen Dish Bowl

2 200 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 11.4 cm.

Height : 3.1 cm.

Description

A blue and white dish, four character mark linyu tang zhi (Hall of Gem-like Jade).17th century, early Kangxi period (1662-1722).

This fine dish depicts a scene of two fishermen having lunch on land, while a lady looks on from inside their docked fishing boat, which has nets and a line with clothing hung out to dry. The gentlemen are engaged in lively conversation, with two bowls, a larger bowl, and a pair of chopsticks between them.

The bottom has a floral border decoration, the base with a four character mark linyu tang zhi (Hall of Gem-like Jade) within a double circle.

Dealer

Menken Works of Art

Art Asiatique

Tel : 00316-14916974

Herengracht 240

Amsterdam 1016BT

Ref:A blue and white bowl with the same mark is in the British Museum collection, museum number: Franks.168.a

Dimensions:Diameter 11.4 cm, height 3.1 cm.

Condition:Some small chipping/fritting to the edge, a visible hairline of ca. 2.6 cm and an invisible hairline of ca. 1 cm.

Inv. No: MW312