Description

Elegant antique cruet composed of two richly cut blown cobalt blue crystal bottles, inserted in a solid silver mount (hallmark 925) in the neoclassical Louis XVI style. The silver structure is finely decorated with floral garlands, fluted columns and beaded friezes, while the curved feet end in stylized animal paws, giving the whole a great visual lightness. This type of refined cruet was intended for aristocratic tables, combining functionality and decorative art. A superb collector's item, ideal for lovers of period silverware, or as a prestigious accent in a classic interior.???? Dimensions: 20 × 23 cm???? Total weight: 1,247 g???? Condition: Good original condition, hallmarks visible
