Description

Calacatta marble fireplace (Carrara quarry, Italy), carved at the end of the 19th century, in perfect condition. Said to be half-moon, this fireplace is adorned with a large stepped frame, decorated with dentils and bordered by a generous torus. Its original floor slab in Carrara marble and Buxy stone "lees-de-vin" completes it. See our last photo. Its total depth, including the floor slab, is 75 cm. Its length at the body is 135 cm. The dimensions of its hearth are 87 cm wide and 79 cm high. You can visit our website: www.claudeaugustin.com
