Description

Elegant French gilt and silver-plated bronze mantel clock, made in the early 1800s for the Ottoman market. It depicts an oriental rider armed with his saber, on a rearing horse, in a typically orientalist style. The wire suspension movement is in perfect working order. The clock comes with its original pendulum and key. Richly decorated, the base features a beautiful decoration of finely chiseled palmettes. The combination of gilt and silver bronze highlights the contrasts and gives relief to the composition. Dimensions: Height: 50 cm Width: 40 cm Depth: 14 cm Very good condition, beautiful patina. A rare and decorative collector's item, a testament to the orientalist taste of the Empire period.
