Description

La Misteriosa is an oil and enamel painting on copper by Alessandro La Motta, an artist featured at the 54th Venice Biennale. At first glance, the work captivates with its enigmatic face, caught between light and shadow. The 50×40 cm copper plate (74×60 cm with frame) reflects metallic glimmers that enhance the rich blue tones and oxidation effects, while the enamel adds depth to the gaze.

Refined Technique on a Noble Medium

The combination of oil and enamel on copper is rare. The smooth surface brings out the vibrancy of the pigments, allowing for extremely fine transitions. La Motta works in delicate layers, making the skin appear alive, yet the contours remain precise. This technique requires skill and control, as mistakes cannot be corrected. As a result, the face seems to transform under different lights, revealing new emotions each time.

Alessandro La Motta: Myth and Recognition

La Motta has long explored the themes of the Mediterranean myth. While drawing inspiration from antiquity, he reinterprets it with a contemporary perspective. His participation in the Venice Biennale confirms his critical and institutional standing. Owning La Misteriosa means acquiring a key piece from an acclaimed artistic journey.

A Decorative Artwork and a Long-Term Investment

Thanks to its balanced dimensions, the painting suits both modern and classic interiors. It fits perfectly above a console or bookshelf, or in a professional space seeking artistic flair. Its elegant palette doesn't overpower but enhances the environment. Moreover, the rare copper medium and the artist's signature make this piece a sound investment.

Impeccable Condition

The painting is in excellent overall condition: no surface damage, stable paint layer, and a modern dark wood frame. The back of the copper plate is protected to prevent deterioration over time.
