

Pair Of Gothic Bronze Candlesticks - Germany, 14th Century

7 450 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Rare pair of Gothic patinated bronze candlesticks, finely cast in the shape of stylized deer. Each animal carries a central shaft serving as a candle holder. Probably German work, attributable to the Nuremberg region, around the 14th century. Comparable models are preserved in several European museum collections, testifying to the animal iconography specific to Gothic goldsmithing. Very good condition of preservation considering the period. Beautiful old patina. Dimensions: 12 x 6 x 12 cm. Rare and decorative pieces, of great interest to lovers of medieval art.
