Pair Of Oil Paintings On Panel - Young Shepherdesses - 19th Century

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

Charming pair of oil paintings on wood panel depicting two young shepherdesses in a bucolic landscape. Each figure, dressed in 19th-century country fashion and wearing a straw hat, embodies the gentleness and pastoral idealism of the Romantic era. One of the young girls holds a lamb, a classic symbol of innocence and pastoralism, while the other adopts an elegant and expressive pose. The works are presented in their richly carved and gilded period frames (some wear visible in some areas). Dimensions: - Frames: 27 x 23 cm - Panels: 18 x 15 cm Decorative paintings, ideal for a refined interior or a 19th-century art collection
