Description

Retro White Gold Cocktail Ring with Cultured Pearls and Diamonds - Circa 1940s-1950sA striking emblem of mid-20th-century elegance, this retro cocktail ring is crafted in 18K white gold (750?) and showcases a sophisticated interplay of textures and sparkle. At its center, two cultured round pearls are gracefully nestled within an openwork gallery reminiscent of ribbon-like motifs, delicately set with brilliant-cut diamonds. Two central diamonds, each weighing approximately 0.10 carat, are framed by fourteen smaller diamonds that add a refined halo of scintillation.The triple band is finely sculpted to offer both comfort and visual harmony, enhancing the architectural allure of the design. Each setting is meticulously executed, revealing the exceptional craftsmanship characteristic of the
