Description

Charming oil on canvas signed lower right F. Renaudin, depicting a peaceful landscape by a pond, under a slightly veiled sky. The scene is enlivened by birds in flight, lush vegetation and a beautiful effect of depth, in the tradition of naturalist landscapes of the late 19th century. The painting seduces with its serene atmosphere and balanced composition, close to the spirit of the Barbizon school. François Renaudin (1866-1944) A French painter active at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries, François Renaudin specialized in landscape painting. His work, influenced by naturalist movements, is distinguished by a great sensitivity to light and rural atmospheres. Although rarely exhibited in major salons, he remains appreciated by collectors for the sincerity and pictorial quality of his scenes. Dimensions:
