Description

Charming oil on canvas signed A. Barligny, depicting a young shepherdess in a hilly landscape, surrounded by her flock of sheep. The artist, in the tradition of the French School of the late 19th century, delicately captures the tranquility and poetry of a pastoral scene. The composition, bathed in soft light, is in the naturalist and regionalist vein, attached to scenes of rural life. Canvas signed lower right: A. Barligny French School, circa 1900 Period giltwood frame decorated with palmettes Dimensions: Frame: 44 x 53 cm Stretcher: 33 x 41 cm Canvas in good condition. Small losses and rubbing on the frame.
