Description

NARDI François (1861-1936) "Sunset in the harbor of Toulon" Original oil on canvas, new frame, Signed and dated (18)95 lower right, Provenance: Commissioned from the artist to decorate a trumeau of a bourgeois apartment in Nice. Beautiful work by one of the masters of Provençal painting, François Nardi, which represents a view of the harbor of Toulon taken at sunset. In the foreground, we can see the waves on the water which seems to be carried by the mistral. The artist has a total mastery of the play of light which perfectly transcribes the light of the end of the day in the harbor of Toulon. Born of Italian parents, François Nardi is naturalized French. Student of the painter Frédéric Montenard then of William Bouguereau, Tony Robert-Fleury, François Flameng and Gabriel
