Description

Elegant set of three nesting tables, all signed "Prodhon - Paris France" under each top. A creation of the house of Louis Prodhon, a Parisian cabinetmaker active in the 1950s-1970s, known for his high-quality neoclassical furniture. Tops in exotic wood veneer (probably rosewood), with dense grain and a glossy finish. Simple molded frames. Fluted gilt brass legs, inspired by the Louis XVI style, finished with tapered sabots. Each table is stamped on the reverse: "Prodhon - Paris France". Dimensions: - Large table: 51 x 30 x 48 cm - Medium table: 41 x 29 x 44 cm - Small table: 31 x 28 x 29 cm Overall condition: very good. Tops in very good condition. Some localized signs of use on the brass legs, consistent with the age of the set. Complete set, stable and ready for use. Decorative and functional piece,
