Description

This recliner chair, made in Italy around the 1960s, embodies the spirit and craftsmanship typical of Italian design from that era. It is a fine example of furniture combining comfort, aesthetics, and craftsmanship. Upholstered in a richly textured bouclé fabric that is pleasant to the touch, this chair invites relaxation. Its sculptural design, both understated and sophisticated, lends a real presence to the space while remaining balanced and functional. The enveloping lines and carefully crafted silhouette reflect an almost architectural approach to design. This chair blends harmoniously into contemporary interiors, while also interacting with vintage or modern elements. Intended for design enthusiasts, collectors, or anyone looking for a unique piece, this chair is a fine example of 1960s Italian
