Shaïre From The Edo Period (1603 - 1868)

490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 7 cm

Height : 7,5 cm

Description

Shaïre with a swollen belly in brown, white, beige glazed stoneware, ivory lid with a slight crack and chip. The shaïre is a small ceramic jar which generally fits in the palm of the hand, intended to contain the tea powder used for Chanoyu, that is to say matcha.Follow me : https://www.instagram.com/

Dealer

Galerie Paola Lumbroso

The Artist Ceramic 20th and 21th centuries.

Mobile : 06 07 22 80 72

Paris 75016