

Shaïre From The Edo Period (1603 - 1868)

490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 7 cm

Height : 7,5 cm

Description

Shaïre with a swollen belly in brown, white, beige glazed stoneware, ivory lid with a slight crack and chip. The shaïre is a small ceramic jar which generally fits in the palm of the hand, intended to contain the tea powder used for Chanoyu, that is to say matcha.

Dealer

Galerie Paola Lumbroso

The ceramic from 19th century until 21th century.

Mobile : 06 07 22 80 72

Saint-Ouen 93400