Description

Painting marine subject representing a view of the Lérins Islands and more precisely of the island of Saint Honorat off the coast of Cannes by Jean Quilichini. Very interesting painting with an identified place treated with real mastery and a keen sense of colors. Jean Quilichini was a well-known painter of marines from the beginning of the century, specializing in views of the French Riviera and Corsica. Very good original condition and presence of the original frame allowing this work to be situated around the 1930s-40s. Note the very beautiful light of a summer sunset giving a very beautiful definition of the details made by the artist. Possibility of sending in France and worldwide by secure and insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided. Dimensions of the painting
