Description

Very nice drawing on blue paper, representing a half-length portrait of a young knight in armor in the style of the 17th century. The young man looks at the viewer. Beautiful facial expression, young, and determined. Black chalk, which looks particularly good on the blue background. The sheet is very large, the portrait framed in black chalk, is well centered. The mention or signature at the bottom of the drawing indicates Boor. A mention under the portrait: Léoni .A european work
