Description

Elegant set of six Louis-Philippe chairs in cherry wood - lyre back Charming set of six Louis-Philippe period chairs, in solid cherry wood, beautifully patinated. Each chair has an openwork back with a lyre motif, typical of the style, delicately carved and highlighted by vegetal scrolls. The soft and harmonious curves of the backs as well as the front legs with a "cabriole" motif reinforce the elegance of the set. The seats are upholstered in a beige fabric with upholstery nails, in good general condition, ready to use. Solid, comfortable and stable, these chairs will suit both a classic interior and a more eclectic atmosphere mixing old and contemporary. ??? Period: mid-19th century - circa 1850 ??? Style: Louis-Philippe ??? Wood species: Cherry ??? Number: 6 chairs ??? Condition: Very good
