

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Flamed Stoneware Vase, 1910s Period, Denbac, Art Nouveau Style, Return From Egypt, René Denert

350 EUR

Signature : Denbac

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sandstone

Description

Antique pot-bellied vase from the Denbac factory. Very beautiful flamed stoneware in shades of blue and green. Decor enhanced with gilding with plant motifs. Art Nouveau and Egyptomania inspiration. Signed Denbac. 14.5cm high. Very good condition Denbac is a famous ceramic factory founded in Vierzon (Cher, France) in 1908 by the ceramist René Denert. In 1921, Denert joined forces with René-Louis Balichon, a former student of the Beaux-Arts de Bourges. Their company then took the name Denbac, a contraction of their names: DENert + BAClichon. Specializing in flamed stoneware and effect glazes, the factory was part of the Art Nouveau and then Art Deco movements. It became known for its elegant forms, rich glazes, stylized floral decorations, and its palette of

Dealer

Le Bûcher des Vanités

Objets d'art, curiosités, antiquités et décoration du XVIIIème au XXème.

Tel : 06 84 54 80 53

Mobile : 00 33 6 84 54 80 53

300 rue de Solférino

Lille 59800

blues, greens, and browns blended into drip effects. Production expanded to include stoneware vases, lamps, sculptures, and decorative objects, often marked "Denbac" and "France." After Denert's death in 1937, production slowed considerably, and the company closed its doors for good in 1952.