Description

Antique landscape view, tempera on paper, Early 19th centuryThis large work of neoclassical taste, made in monochrome tempera on paper later applied to wooden panels, depicts a broad lake and mountain landscape, characterized by a balanced and elegant composition.Measurements: Framed H 160 x W 126 cm / H 150 x W 116 cmDescription:In the foreground, lush and well-detailed vegetation with tall trees and shaded bushes introduce the viewer to a visual path that opens to the background, where a body of water, probably a lake, surrounded by rolling hills emerges. On the right, a fortified village with a bell tower, an architectural element typical of Italian views between the 18th and 19th centuries, is clearly visible.The serene atmosphere is accentuated by the presence of birds in flight in
