Description

French Regence Period Molded and Carved Wood Cane-Back Armchair circa 1720

MLD Antiquities Collection: This magnificent French Regence period armchair, although not displayed in our gallery, is carefully preserved within our private collection.

This antique armchair, fully cane-backed, is a remarkable example of the French Regence style. Crafted from natural molded and carved wood, it features a refined decoration of scallop shells, acanthus leaves, and clasps. The armchair stands on elegantly curved and spiraled legs, characteristic of this period.

This piece exemplifies interesting and elegant French craftsmanship typical of the French
