Description

GELIS (Daniel), French painter born in 1942. The talent of this artist was recognized very young because it was during his first Parisian exhibition at the age of 27 that gallery owners invited him to exhibit in the United States, Moscow, Switzerland, Canada and Tokyo. Official commissions were not long in coming and public collections acquired key works. Recognition from art professionals was also there since he received the silver and gold medals at the Salon des Artistes Français. Daniel GELIS is constantly between figurative and abstract. His blended and harmoniously placed colors bring a particular delicacy to his compositions. This magnificent work from the 1970s depicts a female nude. Titled "Nude on a Red Couch", it was sold in 1978 by the France Art gallery then
