Description

Very pretty oil on canvas entitled "the concert of birds. This decorative canvas from the 20th century takes up all the codes of the animal painters of the 18th century of which Jean-Baptiste Oudry is one of the most notable in France. We see a goose standing on a musical score directing, with its wings, numerous species ready to sing in their most beautiful voices !!!! Large in size and quality, it easily dresses a room at a low cost! A fine golden rod frames everything.
