Description

Art Deco ring, prefiguring the Tank rings of the 40s, in platinum (mascaron head hallmark) adorned in its center with a very high quality old-cut diamond. In accordance with the Art Deco lines, rectilinear and structured, this diamond is set within a square, soberly enhanced with gadroons, arranged perpendicularly, on a flat ring base. A ring therefore refined, highlighting a beautiful diamond, like a solitaire. This ring could therefore just as well be representative of an engagement ring, as be worn for the pleasure of a jewel with an aesthetic that is both old and contemporary, very easy to wear on a daily basis. Estimated diamond weight of approximately 0.80 carat Gross weight: 9.64 g Ring size: 55 and a half - possible resizing to be assessed by our workshop (current diameter 1.79 cm / US size
