Description

Medal pendant in 750/°° yellow gold (18 KT, owl hallmark) from the Lyon medalist AUGIS. An emblematic medal of this house, called "Médaille d'Amour", this is a rare Belle Epoque piece, adorned with roses around the edge of the medal, and rose-cut diamonds on the "+". The medal itself is placed in openwork mode in the center of a ray guilloché giving it breadth. The small size of the medal also makes it a rare model, since it is no longer found at the medalist's than 20 mm. Its delicate color, close to green gold, helps to anchor this jewel in the ancient universe of the beginning of the century. The message of eternal love carried by the medal, "more than yesterday less than tomorrow", takes its source verbatim from the poem by Rosemonde Gérard-Rostand, a poet born in the 19th century. This poem, entitled
