Description

Imposing Louis XVI style blond wood flat desk, formerly used in a lawyer's office. It has two leather-covered side pulls, a central top in brown leather gilded with small iron, all protected by a beveled glass and framed by a gilded wood molding. The front has five visible drawers, as well as a large trompe-l'oeil drawer on the right imitating two drawers, offering deep storage, ideal for files or binders. Ring handles and bronze keyholes. The fluted uprights extend into tapered sabot legs. A beautifully crafted piece of furniture, combining classic elegance and professional use, perfect in a refined interior or an executive office. Dimensions: - Width: 150 cm (225 cm with the 37.5 cm extensions each) - Depth: 75 cm - Height: 78 cm Condition: very good condition. Slight signs of wear on the
