JAEGER LECOULTRE ladies' watch from the 1950s in 750/°° rose gold (18 KT, eagle's head hallmark). New from stock, this watch is still equipped with its original black velvet strap lined with leather, fitted with its 750/°° rose gold pin buckle (18 KT, eagle's head hallmark), and accompanied by its original label. The perfectly round case is joined by lugs very representative of the 1950s design, giving the watch a slender and feminine look. The small size of this watch does not exclude fine work and attention to detail, which can be found on the faceted glass on its honeycomb rim. In order to design this watch in its format, the Jaeger LeCoultre manufacture equipped it with the legendary Duoplan movement, arranged on two levels. This movement is of the mechanical type with manual
