Stamp on the other side (visible in the photos) Length 65cm Height 48cm Thomas Cartier was born on February 21, 1879 in Marseille. A student of Georges Gardet and Victor Peter, he specialized in animal sculpture. He exhibited at the Salon des artistes français from 1904 and received an honorable mention in 1908, a 2nd class medal in 1910 and a gold medal in 1927, the year he was placed in the hors-competition category. During the First World War, he became an illustrator: he then produced numerous anti-German propaganda postcards and support for the poilus. After the war, he settled in Saint-Amand-en-Puisaye and designed numerous
