Description

This bracelet is a bold yet refined piece, combining the natural elegance of pearls with the vintage feel of an exceptional material. The baroque pearls, carefully selected for their soft luster and sculptural shapes, are strung together to create a unique, organic rhythm. At the center, a perfectly polished 18K rose gold bead adds warmth and contrast while subtly highlighting the pearly softness of the pearls. The piece is finished with a statement clasp made of vintage black Bakelite, a rare material sought after for its depth, luster, and historical character. Its wide ring design is both functional and aesthetic, serving as a clasp as much as a central design element.
