Description

Beautiful fir wood corner cabinet, painted in tempera and finished with wax. The lower section features bracket feet and two lockable doors, containing two shelves ideal for storing objects. The upper, taller section consists of a single door that opens onto three ergonomic shelves. The corner cabinet is decorated with typical neoclassical motifs, featuring geometric and plant-based decorations on both the front and sides. This unique and elegant piece of furniture can furnish any space with class and refinement.
Made in the Marche region (central Italy) during the neoclassical period, around the end of the 18th century.
