Description

A refined and original ring that plays with light and transparency. At first glance, a luminous citrine cabochon sits atop a polished 18K yellow gold band. But when you turn the ring over, a surprise is revealed: on the back of the citrine, perfectly concealed, is a smoky quartz, forming a double-sided stone. This unique architecture gives the whole an unprecedented depth and a striking visual effect. This duo of gems creates subtle variations in hue depending on the orientation and the light: a golden glow warmed by smoky reflections, in perpetual motion. The gentle curves of the setting let the light pass through the citrine, revealing the shadows and nuances provided by the quartz located below. Handcrafted in France, this ring is for those seeking jewelry that is both refined and unique, a
