Description

Large collector's diorama dating from the beginning of the 20th century and subsequently electrified, representing Napoleon on campaign. A very beautiful diorama in good condition and quite unusual, with several points of view and a beautiful perspective. The colors have remained fresh and a light bulb illuminates the scene and brings a twilight atmosphere. Napoleon appears surrounded by his guards, his mamluk, and dragoons. We see a cottage in a clearing, an undergrowth, the emperor's car, many soldiers and horses. The whole is positioned in a blackened wooden box with a gilded decoration on the front, all protected by a window. The electrification has been brought up to current standards. The people are made of metal painted with enamel, the decoration is made of wood and
