Oil on canvas board by Patrice Landauer, signed lower right. Painting that could be classified as part of the Nabi movement, in a Montparnasse frame "à la bérain" in carved wood. Dimensions of the painting 61x46 cm Total dimensions, with frame, 79x63 cm. Born in Paris in 1965, Patrice Landauer studied at the Ecole Supérieure des Arts Appliqués (Ecole du Livre - Graphic Arts Section), the Ecole Met de Penninghen (formerly the Académie Julian), and the Ecole des Beaux-Arts de Paris (Painting Section, Albert Zavarro studio). In the great tradition of travelling painters, Patrice Landau has developed a highly personal body of work, at odds with all the usual trends in contemporary art. He always treats a variety of subjects with talent, including genre scenes, landscapes, Africanism and portraits. He
