Description

A striking large Dresden-style porcelain figurine, 51 cm (20") tall, dating to c.1890-1910. Likely from Thuringia (Germany) or Capodimonte (Italy). Exquisitely hand-painted with intricate blue floral motifs and generous gilding, this figure is dressed in theatrical costume evocative of the 18th century. Fine modelling and charming details throughout. Tip of spyglass chipped; otherwise, flawless with no restoration. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. It is important to note that shipping costs include labour, packaging and postage.
