Description

Very large panoramic wallpaper panel in the style of Zuber's "Views of the Antilles" or "Hindoustan" suites. In the vein of exotic panoramas that fascinated Europe in the early 19th century, this work offers an exotic journey: lush landscapes, scenes of local life, picturesque costumes, tropical fauna... This panel presents a scene of colonial daily life in a tropical landscape. In the center, an elegant horse-drawn carriage crosses the scene preceded by a rider running on his horse followed by a dog. On the left, a man leads a donkey laden with baskets; at his side, another figure runs barefoot. On the right, two female figures and a standing male figure in striped trousers....
