Description

The desperate Pierrot is depicted on a bench. The figure is leaning to the right and has one arm hanging over the backrest. The position of the body emphasizes the emptiness and nostalgia for his beloved Colombine. Art Deco, 1920s-30s. Signed (on the shield of the coat of arms the letters RMLS?). Patinated bronze, lacquered wood. Dimensions: 17 x 20 x 9.5 cm. Condition: rubbed bronze, natural patina. Scratches on the wooden element.
