Description

Subject: The Madonna is depicted in profile, holding a lily (a symbol of purity) and a stylized halo behind her. The background is rich in floral details, particularly roses, traditional symbols of Mary.

Style: Art Nouveau style (late 19th - early 20th century), evident in the sinuous floral motifs, elegant features, and decorative layout.

Inscription: "Sancta Virgo Maria" is Latin for "Holy Virgin Mary."

The work is believed to have been created in France during the Art Nouveau period.

Measurements with frame: 47cm by 39cm.
