Description

Large bouillotte lamp, with two light arms, representing winged swans, Empire style and early 20th century. The dark green cracked sheet metal shade is decorated with a garland of laurel and bees, it is adjustable in height by means of the arrow. The cup-shaped base is finely chiseled, but the gilding is worn in places. The electrics are in working order, but the wires would need to be changed, our price takes this repair into account. Delivery possible, please contact us.
