Description

Oil on canvas from the late 19th century, depicting a charge of Berber horsemen crossing a majestic desert landscape. The work is distinguished by the precision of the line, the intensity of the movement and the richness of the details in the faces, the mounts and the red fabrics fluttering in the wind. In the background, monumental rock formations underline the power of the Saharan decor. An orientalizing history painting, imbued with nobility and strength, magnifying the Berber warrior culture in a grandiose setting. Dimensions: Height: 100 cm x Width: 115 cm
