Description

Eterna Matic Automatic watch Model 2002, circa 1974. The History of Eterna was officially born on November 7, 1856. Its founders, Dr. Joseph Girard (surgeon) and Urs Shild, teacher, baptized the company U. Shild & Co. Shild was an accountant at F. Kunz & Girard, when one day he manages to become a partner, changing the name to Girard & Shild, producing drafts and pocket watches. In 1866, Girard left the company and was replaced by Adolph Shild, brother of Urs. In 1896, Adolph Shild leaves the company to found one under its own name: A. Shild or AS. In 1905, U. Shild & Co. took the name of Eterna. The success of the Eterna arrives in 1908 with the first watch with integrated alarm. The history of the Eterna is in fact a good part of the history of modern watchmaking. Eterna founded a new
