Description

Description Guido Reni in the style of Saint Catherine of Alexandria. Oil on canvas, 27,95x36,81. The painting depicts Saint Catherine of Alexandria, a Christian martyr who was highly venerated, particularly during the Middle Ages and the Baroque period. The figure represented is a young crowned woman gazing upward in an attitude of ecstasy or divine vision. She wears sumptuous garments, including a fur-lined mantle and richly draped robes, symbolizing her royal status and noble spirit. Her right hand rests on her chest--a gesture of devotion--while her left holds a quill (a symbol of wisdom), and near her is a spiked wheel, the attribute of her martyrdom. The painting can be dated to the 17th century, a period known for the Baroque style, and it displays stylistic features
